There are some products over which we go completely insane, and Justin's Chocolate Hazelnut Butter is one of them.

This decadent sweet is nearly identical to a well-known hazelnut spread, but minus the animal products and additives. Justin's ingredients are organic, sustainably sourced, and insanely delicious. While our preferred method of consumption simply involves a spoon and a glass of milk, Justin's is also available in 80-calorie squeeze pack format, and devour.
